Form 3—Notice to purchaser

Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995

Part 1

The vehicle referred to in the Section 16 Notice on the other side of this form has been sold to:

Name of purchaser:

Address:

Purchase price: $

Date of sale:

Odometer reading at the time of the sale (specify miles or kilometres):

Certificate by dealer

I certify that the vehicle sold to the above purchaser is correctly described in the Section 16 Notice overleaf and that all statements and particulars entered on both sides of this form are correct.

Signed by the dealer or an employee or agent authorised to sign on behalf of the dealer:

Name of the person signing this certificate (print in block letters):

Part 2

This notice contains important information. Please read it carefully and keep it for future reference.

The Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 provides for a duty to repair second-hand vehicles sold for more than $3 000. (There are some exceptions, but any passenger vehicle with a year of first registration not more than 15 years ago and that has not been driven more than 200 000 km will be covered.)

The period during which there is a duty to repair depends on the price you paid for the vehicle. There is a summary of these periods on the other side of this form. If a "defect" appears in the vehicle in the period during which there is a duty to repair, the dealer must arrange for it to be repaired. However, if you fail, without reasonable excuse, to give the dealer proper notice of the defect within that period, or to deliver (or make reasonable efforts to deliver) the vehicle for repair within 5 business days of the end of the period, the dealer may no longer be under a duty to repair the defect.

If you want the dealer to repair your vehicle, you must deliver it to the agreed place of repair listed at the end of Part B on the other side of this form, or if no place has been so agreed on, to any registered premises of the dealer. In some cases you might not have to return the vehicle to that address, and you might be able to have it repaired by someone else. However, you should seek advice about this before you do anything.

Not every fault is a defect covered by the duty to repair. For example, if there are problems with the paintwork or upholstery that you should have noticed when you inspected the vehicle, these are not covered. Some accessories (for example radios, tape players and air-conditioners) are not covered if the dealer has listed them on the other side of this form. A brochure available from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs gives a full list of those accessories which the dealer may list on the other side of this form. It also explains what other defects arising after sale may not be covered by a duty to repair.

If a vehicle is sold for $3 000 or less, the duty to repair does not apply, but the vehicle must be in roadworthy condition. There may also be other duties or remedies available under other legislation.

The only way you can give away your warranty rights under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 is if you have signed a waiver document in accordance with regulation 23 of the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Regulations 2010.

Some disputes between dealers and purchasers can be resolved by a conference convened by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs or, if a conciliation conference fails to resolve the matter, by an order of the Civil (Consumer and Business) Division of the Magistrates Court. Before making any application to the Commissioner, you should seek advice from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs.

The Office will assist with any enquiries about your purchase. It can also give you the brochure mentioned above which explains everything in much more detail than is possible in this notice. Check under "Consumer and Business Affairs" in your telephone book for the address and telephone number of the nearest office.

- (b) the price at which the vehicle, in the condition which it is offered or exposed for sale, may be purchased for cash, including all dealer charges but not including any statutory charges or fees;

Schedule 4—Defects in vehicles

(regulation 21)

Part 1—Defects in accessories

A dealer is not under a duty to repair a defect in any of the following accessories:

- (a) any camping or recreational accessory;
- (b) a radio;

if the dealer has stated in the Section 16 Notice or in the Auction Notice (as the case may be) that the dealer does not accept a duty to repair a defect in that accessory.

Part 2—Left-hand drive configuration

A dealer is not under a duty to modify a vehicle that is in left-hand drive configuration so that it complies with the Road Traffic Act 1961 if the dealer has stated in the Section 16 Notice or in the Auction Notice (as the case may be) that the vehicle cannot be registered until it has been converted to right-hand drive configuration to the standard required by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles and that the dealer does not accept a duty to perform those modifications.

Schedule 5—Contributions to second-hand vehicles compensation fund

(regulation 22)

- 1 (1) Subject to this Schedule, a contribution of the prescribed amount for each registered premises from which a licensed dealer carries on business as a dealer must be paid to the Commissioner by the dealer when the dealer makes application to register the premises under section 14 of the Act.

- 2 If a licensed dealer—

- (a) notifies the Commissioner in writing that the dealer has ceased or will cease within 14 days to carry on business at registered premises; and
- (b) applies to register other premises,

- 3 If a licensed dealer, on making application to register premises, satisfies the Commissioner that the dealer is joining in partnership with another licensed dealer and the premises the dealer is applying to register are currently registered in the name of the other dealer, a contribution is not payable under clause 1 in respect of the premises.

Schedule 6—Waiver of rights

Form 1—Waiver of rights

Waiver of rights under Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995

(regulation 23)

Important. This is an important document. It takes away some of your legal rights. Read it carefully. This form must be completed in duplicate.

Part 1

Under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995, you have a number of legal rights and protections. These rights and protections cannot be taken away from you unless you agree. One of the rights and protections you have is that a second-hand vehicle dealer is under a duty to repair certain defects that are present, or that may occur, in the vehicle during the statutory warranty period (which varies according to the price of the vehicle).

You may only give up your rights to have the vehicle you are thinking of purchasing repaired by the dealer under warranty by completing the form set out in Part 2 of this document and obtaining the completed certificate of the witness.

If you complete the form set out in Part 2 of this document, YOU will be responsible for repairs to the vehicle after purchase. If the vehicle develops a serious fault, you may have rights and remedies under other legislation, but you will have no rights to have the vehicle repaired under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995.

It is recommended that you arrange for an independent inspection of the vehicle BEFORE you complete the form set out in Part 2 of this document.

If you do not understand this document, you should seek advice from the Office of Consumer and Business Affairs. (Check under "Consumer and Business Affairs" in your telephone book for the address and telephone number of the nearest office.)

Do not sign the form set out in Part 2 if there is something in this document that you do not understand.

Note—

If you understand that you are giving away your repair rights under the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 by signing this document and you still want to purchase the vehicle for the price set out in Part 2 of the document, then you should sign it before a Justice of the Peace, a legal practitioner or a proclaimed manager. Give 1 copy of the completed and signed document to the dealer and keep the other copy for your records.
