

ANNO DECIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 2.

An Act to continue the powers and authorities of the "City Commissioners."

[Assented to 7th October, 1851.]

Enacted.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance passed on the nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, "Further to amend and continue the Ordinances authorising the levying of an Assessment within the City of Adelaide, and to provide for the improvement of the City until Municipal Institutions shall be established," it was enacted, that certain powers and authorities, rights and privileges, therein referred to, should be exercised and enjoyed by a Board of Commissioners, to be called the "City Commissioners:" And whereas by the said recited Ordinance it was provided, that whenever the Ordinance "To constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide" should come into operation, the said recited Ordinance should cease and determine, save as is therein provided: And whereas by virtue of a Proclamation, duly issued by the Governor, and published in the South Australian Government Gazette, the said Ordinance "To constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide" hath come into effect, and by means thereof the said recited Ordinance hath ceased and determined: And whereas it is expedient that the powers by the said recited Ordinance given to the "City Commissioners" should be continued to them until the first Elections to be held under the Ordinance "To constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide:"

Be it therefore Enacted, by His Excellency the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That notwithstanding the commencement and taking effect of the Ordinance "To constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide," the "City Commissioners" appointed under the recited Ordinance shall have, exercise, and enjoy all the powers, authorities, rights, privileges, and protection which, in and by virtue of the said recited Ordinance, "Further to amend and continue the Ordinances authorising the levying of an Assessment within the City of Adelaide, and to provide for the improvement of the City until Municipal Institutions shall be established," are given to, imposed upon, and vested in such "City Commissioners" until the holding of the first Elections under the said Ordinance "To establish a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide," in the same manner, to all intents and purposes, as though the said last-mentioned Ordinance had not commenced and taken effect.

JOHN MORPHETT, Speaker.

Passed the Legislative Council this Second } day of October, One Thousand Eight } Hundred and Fifty-one.

F. C. SINGLETON,
Clerk of Council.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.
