

ANNO DECIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 3.

An Act to increase the Salaries of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of the Province of South Australia.

[Assented to 11th October, 1851.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Most Gracious Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the Better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it is inter alia enacted, section 17th, that there shall be payable to Her Majesty every year out of the revenue funds arising from taxes, duties, rates, and imposts levied within the Colony of South Australia, after the establishment of a Legislative Council therein under the said Act the several sums mentioned in the Schedule D to the said Act, such several payments to be made for defraying the expenses of the services and purposes mentioned in the said Schedule; and it was further enacted, section 18, that it should be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of South Australia, by any Act or Acts, to alter all or any of the sums mentioned in the said Schedule, subject to certain provisions therein mentioned, and until and subject to such alteration by Act or Acts as aforesaid, the Salaries of the Judges shall be those respectively set against their several offices in the first part of the said Schedule: And whereas by Schedule D aforesaid provision is made only for the Salary of one of the Judges, and the Supreme Court being now extended and consisting of two Judges, it is necessary that the sum appropriated in the said Schedule for the
