

1853.

No. 1.

An Act to render valid Certificates granted by the Deputy-Registrar under color of the Ordinance No. 7 of 1846.

[Assented to 19th October, 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Ordinance passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, No. 7 of 1846, "To amend the Laws relating to Aliens," a certain oath was directed to be taken before (amongst other persons) the Registrar of the Province of South Australia, who was, by such Ordinance, directed to grant a certificate of the taking and subscribing of the said oath: And whereas divers persons have taken the said oath before the Deputy-Registrar of the said Province, and such Deputy-Registrar hath given certificates of the taking and subscribing the same: Preamble.

Be it Enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of the same, That, notwithstanding anything in the said Ordinance contained, every certificate of the taking and subscribing of the said oath by the aforesaid Ordinance prescribed, heretofore granted and signed by the Deputy-Registrar of the said Province, shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as though the same certificate had been granted and signed by, and the oath therein referred to had been taken before, the Registrar-General aforesaid. Certificates granted by Deputy-Registrar to be valid.

x extended to 18 days by
S. 2 of 11 of 1854

S. 2 Public notice of receipt of writ & time & place of holding of Revision from Receipt of writ - within 4 days of time of place to be set less than 14 days from notice S. 3 writs to be completed within 4 days from the holding of Revision

22 days

S. 9 - no writ to be later or less than ⊙ extended to 22 days by
S. 10 of 11 of 1854
⊙ 24 days
or more than 47 days from day of election.

Before this - was not of the Statute
cannot be obtained
So that if a C. D. is written to cause
to the election was paid by the 24th
day he would only have 24
days to do it -
It is in perspective in the Court of extended due to the Statute