

ANNO VICESIMO SECUNDO ET VICESIMO TERTIO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.
A.D. 1859.

No. 17.

An Act to amend an Act No. 2 of 1854, intituled "An Act to organize and establish a Volunteer Military Force in South Australia."

[Assented to, 1st September, 1859.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend An Act No. 2 of 1854, Preamble.
"To organize and establish a Volunteer Military Force in South Australia"—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. So much of the said Act as authorizes any troop or company of the Volunteers by the said Act authorized to be raised, to recommend to the Governor any person duly enrolled and engaged as Volunteers, to be Captain, Lieutenant, and Ensign or Cornet, to any such troop or company, is hereby repealed. Repeal of power of recommending officers.

2. Instead of the sums by the said Act authorized to be paid to every volunteer, there shall be paid to every volunteer, duly enrolled under the authority of the said Act, for every day of the period for which he may be called out for the purpose of exercise or training, or for actual service, the sums following, that is to say:—To each volunteer, the sum of Three Shillings and Sixpence; and an additional sum of Four Shillings for marching money, for every day in which he shall be required to leave the district in which he is enrolled. Sums to be paid to volunteers.

3. This Act may be cited as "The Volunteer Amendment Act." Short title of Act.

4. This Act shall take effect from the passing thereof. Commencement of Act.
