

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO ET QUADRAGESIMO
QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1880.

No. 186.

An Act to provide for the Payment of Retiring Allowances to Judges of the Supreme Court in certain cases, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, October 28th, 1880.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to make provision for the payment of retiring allowances to the Judges of the Supreme Court in certain cases—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly of the said province in Parliament assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

1. Every Judge of the Supreme Court who, in consequence of being unable from permanent infirmity to perform the duties of his office, shall be permitted to resign his office after having served as a Judge of such Court for not less than twenty years shall be entitled to claim, and to be paid, a retiring allowance, to be continued during his life, of One Thousand Three Hundred Pounds per annum.

Retiring allowances to Judges.

2. Retiring allowances becoming payable under this Act shall be paid out of the General Revenue of the said province, and shall grow due from day to day; but shall be payable to the persons entitled thereto on the usual monthly days of payment, or at such other periods as the Governor may decide.

Retiring allowances, how payable.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
