No. 218.

An Act to amend the "Mining Companies Act, 1881."

[Assented to, November 18th, 1881.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the "Mining Companies Act, 1881," in manner hereinafter provided—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows :—

Preamble.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Mining Companies Amendment Act, 1881."

Short title.

2. It shall not be necessary to publish a copy of the memorandum lodged in the office of the Registrar of Companies so far as the same relates to the names, addresses, and occupations of the shareholders, and the number of shares held by each, but the same shall nevertheless be inserted in the said memorandum ; and any document purporting to be certified under the hand of the Registrar of Companies as a copy of such memorandum shall be prima facie evidence that the persons named therein as shareholders in any such company are such shareholders.

Publication of names and addresses of shareholders not necessary.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
