Superannuation Act.—1926.

PART I.

“ Salary ” means salary or wages, and includes the value of allowances such as allowances for rent, house allowed rent free, light, fuel, rations, and fees allowed regularly as emoluments of office, but does not include bonuses, overtime payments, or allowances for forage, equipment, climatic disadvantages, cost of living, or travelling expenses :

“ Service ” means service under or employment by the Government of South Australia, and includes service under or employment by the South Australian Railways Commissioner, the Irrigation Commission, the Commissioner of Highways, the Harbors Board, the State Bank of South Australia, or the Council of the School of Mines and Industries of South Australia :

“ The appointed day ” means the date notified by the Governor in the Gazette pursuant to section 23 of this Act as the date from which employees are to contribute to the Fund.

(2) Any person holding any of the following offices shall, notwithstanding that his term of office is for a limited or fixed period only, be deemed to be employed in a permanent capacity for the purposes of this Act :—

- I. South Australian Railways Commissioner :
- II. Irrigation Commissioner :
- III. Commissioner of Highways :
- IV. Harbors Commissioner :
- V. Public Service Commissioner :
- VI. Member of the Licensing Court :
- VII. Garden Suburb Commissioner :
- VIII. Any other office the period of the term of which is limited or fixed by any Act.

(3) No person who is a contributor to the Superannuation Fund established under the laws of the Commonwealth for the Public Service of the Commonwealth shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning of this Act.

(4) If any question arises as to whether any person is an employee within the meaning of this Act, that question shall be determined by the Board, and the decision of the Board shall be final and not subject to review by any Court.

PART II.

PART II.

THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN SUPERANNUATION FUND.

4. (1) There shall be a Fund to be known as “ The South Australian Superannuation Fund ” into which shall be paid the contributions of the Government and of its employees under this Act, and from which shall be paid the benefits provided for in this Act.

Income and expenditure of Fund.

(2) Income

PART II.

*Superannuation Act.—1926.*Interest part of Fund.

(2) Income derived from the investment of the Fund shall form part thereof.

(3) The Fund shall be exempt from income tax and from all other taxation whatsoever.

(4) For the purposes of the Fund the Board may borrow moneys from the Treasurer, which moneys the Treasurer is hereby authorised to lend to the Board. Such moneys shall be lent on the security of any moneys of the Fund invested in Government securities, and the total amount of moneys so lent by the Treasurer shall not exceed at any time two-thirds of the amount of the moneys of the Fund so invested.

Investment of Fund.

5. (1) The Fund shall, as far as practicable, be invested by the Board--

(a) in securities of the Commonwealth ;

(b) in securities of the States ;

(c) in loans to local governing bodies in Australia ;

(d) upon mortgage of land in Australia of an estate of inheritance in fee simple or on mortgage of leasehold interests in such land ; or

(e) in any other manner for the time being allowed by any Commonwealth or State Act for the investment of trust funds in Australia.

(2) Moneys held uninvested by the Board may be lodged either at call or on fixed deposit, or partly at call and partly on fixed deposit, with the Treasurer or with any prescribed bank, and while in such bank shall be held to be moneys of the Crown.

Audit.

6. The accounts relating to the Fund shall be audited by the Auditor-General.

Quinquennial
investigation by an actuary.

7. (1) An investigation as to the state and sufficiency of the Fund shall be made at the expiration of each period of five years after the commencement of this Act.

(2) The investigation shall be made by the Public Actuary.

(3) The Public Actuary shall report to the Board the result of his investigation, and shall state whether any reduction or increase is necessary in the rates of contributions payable to the Fund or in the proportion payable by the Government in respect of any pension.

PART III.

THE SUPERANNUATION FUND BOARD.

8. (1) There shall be a Superannuation Fund Board, which shall consist of three members, who shall be appointed by the Governor, and one of whom shall be appointed from persons nominated by employees in the manner prescribed.

Constitution of Board.

(2) The Governor shall appoint one of the members of the Board to be the President of the Board.

(3) One of the members of the Board shall be an actuary: Provided that if there is in the State no competent actuary available and willing to act as a member of the Board this subsection shall have no effect.

9. (1) The members of the Board shall be appointed for a term of seven years, and any member shall be eligible for reappointment.

Term of office.

(2) If any officer of the Public Service, or person employed in a permanent capacity in any department is appointed a member of the Board, his service as member shall, for the purpose of determining his existing and accruing rights, be counted as if his service were continuous in the position he held prior to his appointment as member of the Board.

(3) The position of member of the Board may be held in conjunction with any other appointment under the Government.

10. Where a member of the Board dies or otherwise vacates his office, the Governor may appoint a person to fill the vacancy, and such appointment shall be for the remainder of the term of the vacant office.

Extraordinary vacancies, appointments to fill.

11. In the case of the illness, suspension, or absence of the President or any member of the Board, the Governor may appoint a deputy to act for the President or member during his illness, suspension, or absence, and every deputy so appointed shall, while so acting, have all the powers and authority of the President or member, as the case may be.

Temporary appointments.

12. (1) A member of the Board may be suspended from his office by the Governor for misbehaviour or incompetence.

Removal of members of Board.

(2) Upon the suspension of a member the Minister shall cause a full statement of the grounds of suspension to be laid before both Houses of the Parliament within seven days after the suspension if the Parliament is in session, and if the Parliament is not in session, then within seven days after the commencement of the next session.

(3) A member of the Board suspended under this section shall be restored to office unless each House of the Parliament, within twenty-one days after the time when the statement was laid before it, passes a resolution requesting the Governor to remove the member from office, and upon the passage of the resolution the member shall be removed by the Governor accordingly.

13. A

PART III.

Superannuation Act.—1926.

Vacation of office.

13. A member of the Board shall be deemed to have vacated his office if he :—

- (a) becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or applies to take the benefit of any Act for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or compounds with his creditors, or makes an assignment of his salary or remuneration for their benefit ;
- (b) absents himself, without leave first granted by the Governor, from three consecutive meetings, or during any one calendar year from a total of five meetings, of which reasonable notice has been given to him personally or in the ordinary course of post ;
- (c) becomes permanently incapable of performing his duties ; or
- (d) resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor.

President of the Board.

14. The President shall be the permanent administrative officer of the Board, shall preside at its meetings, and shall have a deliberative vote.

Remuneration of President and other members.

15. The President and other members of the Board shall be paid such remuneration respectively as the Governor from time to time determines.

Quorum.

16. Two members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting the business of any meeting of which notice has been given personally or by post to all the members.

Where voting equal.

17. (1) Where the voting on any question is equal, the question shall be postponed until the next meeting of the Board, and notice of the question, and of the fact that the voting was equal, shall be given in the notice calling the next meeting.

(2) If the voting at the next meeting is again equal, the question shall be postponed to a full meeting of the Board.

Incorporation of Board.

18. (1) The Board shall be a corporate body, having perpetual succession and a common seal.

(2) The seal of the Board shall not be attached to any document except on resolution of the Board, and shall be authenticated by the signature of two members of the Board and of the Secretary.

Delegation of power to President.

19. The Board may, by resolution under seal, authorise the President to determine such matters as are specified in the resolution, and may at any time in like manner revoke such authority.

Staff.

20. (1) The Staff of the Board shall be appointed under and be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1916.

(2) The Public Actuary shall be the Actuary to the Board.

21. (1) The

Superannuation Act.—1926.

PART III.

21. (1) The cost of the administration of this Act shall be paid out of moneys appropriated from time to time by the Parliament for the purpose: Cost of management. Provided that at the end of each financial year there shall be repaid from the Fund to the Treasurer in aid of the General Revenue of the State the amounts paid into the Fund under subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The moneys received and paid in connection with the administration of this Act, and the accounts in connection therewith, shall be kept, as part of the public accounts, separately from the moneys and accounts of the Fund.

(3) For the purpose of repaying to the Treasurer part of the cost of administration as provided in this section every contributor and every pensioner (not being a child under sixteen years of age) shall in addition to any other contribution payable under this Act contribute to the Fund annually the sum of Five Shillings.

(4) The contributions required to be made under this section shall be made by instalments of the amount fixed by the Board and payable at the time fixed by the Board, and shall, in the case of a contributor, be deducted from his salary, and, in the case of a pensioner, from his pension.

22. The Board shall in each year submit to the Minister, to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, a report dealing with the general administration and working of this Act. Annual report to Parliament.

PART IV.

PART IV.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

DIVISION I.—CONTRIBUTIONS BY EMPLOYEES.

DIVISION I.

23. (1) Every employee shall (except as otherwise provided in this Act) contribute to the Fund from such date (not being more than six months after the commencement of this Act) as the Governor notifies in the Gazette, or, in the case of an employee whose employment commences after the date so notified, from the date of the commencement of his employment. Commencement and cessation of contributions.

(2) The contributions of a contributor shall cease to be paid when he ceases to be employed in the Service, or immediately after the last monthly or fortnightly payment before the anniversary of his initial contribution next preceding the attainment by him of the age for retirement, whichever first happens: Provided that in the case of a contributor whose initial payment is made within twelve months before he attains the age of retirement, a sum equal to one year's contributions shall be made before pension in respect of superannuation shall become payable.

DIVISION

PART IV.

Superannuation Act.—1926.

DIVISION II.

DIVISION II.—SCALE OF UNITS.

Scale of units of pension.

24. (1) Subject to this Act, contributions by an employee shall be in respect of units of pension as defined in section 39 of this Act and the number of units in respect of which an employee shall contribute shall have relation to the salary of the employee in accordance with the following scale :—

COLUMN ONE. Where the Annual Salary of the Employee—		COLUMN TWO. The Employee shall contribute the Amount necessary to provide Units of Pension as under.
Does not exceed £	130	Two units, equivalent to a pension of £ 52
Exceeds 130 and does not exceed	156	Two and a half units, equivalent to a pension of 65
“ 156 “ ..	182	Three units, equivalent to a pension of 78
“ 182 “ ..	208	Three and a half units, equivalent to a pension of 91
“ 208 “ ..	260	Four units, equivalent to a pension of 104
“ 260 “ ..	312	Five units, equivalent to a pension of 130
“ 312 “ ..	364	Six units, equivalent to a pension of . 156
“ 364 “ ..	416	Seven units, equivalent to a pension of 182
“ 416		Eight units, equivalent to a pension of 208

(2) An employee whose salary does not exceed Two Hundred and Eight Pounds per annum may elect to contribute for additional units or half units to make up a total number of two and a half, three, three and a half, or four units.

(3) Where an employee enters the Service after the commencement of this Act, and at the time of such entry has attained the age of forty years, the Board may, upon application by the employee, reduce the number of units in respect of which he shall contribute, or release him from the obligation to contribute.

(4) If the salary of a contributor is increased, and by reason of that increase falls within a higher salary-group in column one of the scale contained in subsection (1) of this section than the salary-group in which it fell prior to the increase, the following provisions shall apply to the contributor :—

(a) if he has attained the age of forty years, or was at the commencement of this Act an employee thirty years of age, or over, he may increase the amount of his contributions to an amount not exceeding the sum which will provide units of pension to the number specified in column two opposite to that higher salary-group ; and

(b) in

Superannuation Act.—1926.

PART IV.
DIVISION II.

- (b) in all other cases, he shall increase the amount of his contribution to such a sum as will provide units of pension to the number so specified, and any such increased contribution shall be payable as from the first day of the month in which payment of salary at the increased rate is actually made: Provided that where any such increase of salary is due to the operation of any statute or of an award of a Court or body having power to fix rates of pay, which statute or award makes the amount of such salary liable to be increased if any increase occurs in the living wage as declared by any tribunal empowered to make such declaration or in the cost of living, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply unless the contributor so elects.

(5) An employee who has, at the commencement of this Act, attained the age of thirty years, shall not in any case be compelled to contribute for more than two units, but may, within three months after the appointed day, elect to take the benefit of this subsection, and thereupon the following provisions shall apply to him:—

- (a) he may elect within the said three months to contribute, at the rates prescribed for the age of thirty, for two, two and a half, three, three and a half, or four units; and
- (b) if the period of his continuous service under the Government is not less than ten years, he may elect within the said three months to contribute at the rate appropriate to his age as provided in the Schedules to this Act for units additional to those contributed for under the last preceding paragraph;
- (c) if the period of his continuous service under the Government is less than ten years he may elect, within the said three months, to contribute from the date on which his period of continuous service shall be not less than ten years, at the rate appropriate to his age at that date, as provided in the Schedules to this Act for units additional to those contributed for under paragraph (a) of this subsection:

Provided that the total number of units contributed for by any such employee shall not exceed the number of units prescribed for the salary-group to which, according to the scale contained in subsection (1) of this section, he belongs, or the number of four units, whichever is the greater.

(6) An employee who has, at the commencement of this Act, attained the age of thirty years and who has not elected to take the benefit of the last preceding subsection, may elect to contribute for any number of units, not being less than two, and not exceeding the number prescribed for the salary-group to which, according to the scale contained in subsection (1) of this section, he belongs.

(7) An employee who has exercised any power of election in pursuance of either of the last two preceding subsections, shall pay, as from the appointed day or from the date of receipt of pay next succeeding succeeding the date on which his period of continuous service under the Government becomes ten years, as the case may be, his contributions for the units for which he has elected to contribute.

PART IV.
DIVISION II.Superannuation Act.—1926.

(8) For the purpose of this section "temporary" service, if continuous with "permanent" service, shall count towards the total qualifying period required by this section.

Provision where adequate provision made by employee.

25. Where an employee satisfies the Board that adequate provision has been made for himself and family, the Board may exempt him from contributing for more than two units of pension.

Employee reduced in salary.

26. (1) Where the salary of a contributor is by reason of the misconduct or default of the contributor reduced from one salary-group to another salary-group, the number of units for which he is compelled to contribute shall be reduced to the number appropriate to the salary-group to which his salary has been reduced, and the actuarial equivalent of any contributions previously paid by him, in respect of units in excess of the reduced number, shall be refunded to the contributor.

(2) Where the salary of a contributor is, otherwise than by reason of any misconduct or default of the contributor, reduced from one salary-group to another salary-group, the number of units for which he is compelled to contribute shall not be reduced unless he elects to contribute for a number of units appropriate to the salary-group to which his salary has been reduced, and if he so elects the actuarial equivalent of any contributions previously paid by him in respect of units in excess of the reduced number shall be refunded to the contributor.

DIVISION III.

DIVISION III.—SCALE OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY EMPLOYEES.

Contributions
according to scale graduated by age at commencement.

27. The amount of contribution which shall be paid by an employee shall, except where otherwise provided in this Act, be based upon—

- (a) the number of units or half-units of pension in respect of which the employee contributes ;
- (b) sex ; and
- (c) the age at which the employee commences to contribute for each unit or half unit, and shall be in accordance with the tables of contributions prescribed by or under this Act.

Tables of contributions in schedules.

28. (1) During the five years next following the commencement of this Act, and until other tables of contributions are prescribed as hereinafter provided, the tables of contributions for men and women according to ages, set out in Schedules I. and II. to this Act shall be in force, and shall apply to male and female employees respectively.

(2) As

*Superannuation Act.—1926.*PART IV.
DIVISION III.

(2) As soon as practicable after the expiration of each period of five years from the commencement of this Act, the Governor may, upon the recommendation of the Board, prescribe tables of contributions, which shall, subject to the approval of both Houses of Parliament, take effect from a date to be fixed by proclamation, and remain in force until other tables are prescribed under this subsection.

Quinquennial
adjustment of rates.

DIVISION IV.—CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE GOVERNMENT.

DIVISION IV.

29. In respect of each unit or portion of a unit of pension paid from the Fund on the basis of a contribution corresponding to the rate prescribed for the age of the employee at the date upon which he commenced to pay the contribution, a sum equal to one-half of the payment so made shall be paid by the Government to the Fund.

Payments by Government where contributions by employee are at rate for age.

30. (1) In respect of each unit or portion of a unit of pension paid from the Fund on the basis of a contribution corresponding to the rate prescribed for an age younger than that of the employee at the date upon which he commenced to pay the contribution, a sum, ascertained in the manner provided in this section, shall be paid by the Government to the Fund.

Payments by Government where contributions by employee are not at
rate for age.

(2) To determine the sum payable in each case by the Government under this section, the rate of contribution actually payable by the employee shall be subtracted from twice the rate prescribed for the age of the employee at the date upon which he commenced to pay the contribution, and the ratio of this difference to twice the rate so prescribed shall be computed. This ratio shall represent the fraction of the pension payment so made to be paid by the Government to the Fund.

(3) Where a pension calculated in accordance with this Act is less than the prescribed minimum, and where this Act provides that the prescribed minimum shall be paid, the amount necessary to bring the pension up to the minimum shall be paid by the Government to the Fund in addition to the sums payable by the Government under the last preceding section and the foregoing provisions of this section.

31. (1) Payments by the Government to the Fund for the purpose of this Act shall be made from the General Revenue of the State, which is hereby appropriated accordingly.

Payments from Consolidated
Reserve Fund.

(2) The payments shall be made in such manner and at such periods as are prescribed.

DIVISION V.—GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO CONTRIBUTIONS.

DIVISION V.

32. (1) Except as provided in section 60, a contributor who is on leave of absence, either with or without pay, shall pay his contributions during or in respect of the period of leave, as for a period of service, without reduction.

Employees on leave of absence.

(2) An

PART IV.
DIVISION V.

Superannuation Act.—1926.

(2) An employee who is on leave of absence without pay at the commencement of this Act and has at such commencement been on such leave for two years or more shall not be deemed to be an employee within the meaning of this Act: Provided that if such an employee actually resumes his duties in the Service he shall again be deemed to be an employee, and in computing the length of his service for the purposes of this Act the period of his service both before and after the said leave of absence, and the period of the said leave of absence, shall be taken into account.

(3) Where such an employee as mentioned in subsection (2) of this section is entitled to make an election under subsection (5) of section 24 he may do so at any time within three months from the date upon which he resumes his duties as aforesaid.

Manner of payment
—deduction from wages or salaries.

33. The contribution of every contributor shall be deducted from his salary, and shall be paid, without deduction for postage, forwarding or exchange, to the Board: Provided that where a contributor is on leave of absence through illness, either without pay or at less than full pay, the Board may, upon his application, permit the contributions falling due during his absence to be paid by him in such smaller sums, and at such periods as the Board approves.

PART V.
DIVISION I.

PART V.—PENSIONS AND BENEFITS.

DIVISION I.—RETIREMENT ON PENSIONS.

Age of optional
retirement.

34. Every contributor who has been in the service for at least ten years shall be entitled to a pension on his retirement upon or after reaching the age of sixty-five years if a man, or the age of sixty if a woman: Provided that, subject to the provisions of section 41 of this Act a contributor who has been in the Service for at least ten years shall be entitled to a pension on retirement upon or after reaching the age of sixty years, if a man, or age fifty-five, if a woman.

Breakdown
retirement.

35. A contributor who is retired on the ground of invalidity or of physical or mental incapacity to perform his duties shall be entitled to a pension in accordance with the provisions of section 40.

Retrenchment and discharge.

36. The compulsory termination of the service of a contributor for the reason that his service or position is not necessary, or for the reason that the work for which he was engaged is finished, or for the reason that the quantity of work has diminished and has rendered necessary a reduction in the number of employees—

(a) shall be deemed to be "retrenchment" if the contributor has been in the Service for not less than ten years; and

(b) shall be deemed to be "discharge" if the contributor has been in the Service for less than ten years:

Dismissal.

Provided that if the contributor, being a man has attained the age of sixty-five years or being a woman, sixty years, such compulsory termination of services as aforesaid shall be deemed to be retirement on pension.

however expressed, other than—

- (a) compulsory termination which is deemed to be retirement on pension as provided in the next preceding section ;
- (b) retirement through invalidity or physical or mental incapacity ; or
- (c) retrenchment or discharge, shall be deemed to be dismissal, for the purpose of this Act.

38. Voluntary termination of service (however expressed) by a contributor who is not entitled to retire on pension shall be deemed to be resignation. Resignation.

DIVISION II.—GRANT OF PENSIONS AND BENEFITS.

DIVISION II.

39. (1) The sum of Twenty-six Pounds per annum shall be the unit of pension. Pension unit.

(2) The minimum amount of pension to any contributor shall, except where this Act requires a pension to be actuarially determined, be two units, and the minimum amount of pension to the widow of a contributor or pensioner shall be one unit.

40. (1) Where a contributor, who has been in the Service for at least seven years, is retired on the ground of invalidity or physical or mental incapacity to perform his duties, he shall— Retirement through invalidity, amount of pension.

- (a) if the invalidity or incapacity is not due to his own fault, be entitled to the full pension for which he was contributing at the time of his retirement ; and
- (b) if the invalidity or incapacity is due to his own fault, be entitled to a pension which is the actuarial equivalent of the contributions made by him up to the time of his retirement or, at his option, to a refund of the actual amount of the contributions made by him up to the time of his retirement less the actual amount of any pension received by him under this section or section 47 of this Act.

(2) Where a contributor who has been in the service for less than seven years is retired on the ground of invalidity or of mental or physical incapacity to perform his duties, he shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of the contributions made by him.

41. (1) Subject to this Act, a contributor shall, upon retirement, be entitled to receive a pension according to the number of units for which he was contributing at the time of his retirement : Provided that any contributor who, being a man, has attained the age of sixty years, or, being a woman, has attained the age of fifty-five years, and elects to retire before attaining the age of retirement, shall as from the date of his retirement be entitled to a pension which Amount of pension on retirement.

is the actuarial equivalent of the contributions made or to be made by him and of the contributions to the Fund which would have been made by the Government if the Government had, during the period throughout which the contributor had been contributing to the Fund, been making such periodical contributions to the Fund as are necessary to provide for the share of pension payable by the Government.

(2) In this section "periodical contributions" means contributions made from time to time on each occasion when a contribution is deducted from the salary of the contributor or made by the contributor in any other way.

Pension to widow
and children on death of contributor.

42. On the death of a male contributor before retirement, pension shall be paid to his widow as follows :—

- (a) during her own life, one-half of the pension for which her husband was contributing at the time of his death :
Provided that if she remarries, her pension under this paragraph shall thereupon cease and determine ; and
- (b) in respect of each of her or the contributor's children (except children of her remarriage) who are under the age of sixteen years, a pension at the rate of Thirteen Pounds per annum until the age of sixteen years has been attained :

Provided that if the widow is not the first wife of the contributor the pension payable to such widow shall be reduced by one and a quarter per centum for each year or part of a year in excess of five years by which her age was exceeded by the age of her husband.

Pension to widow
and children on death of pensioner
after retirement.

43. On the death of a male pensioner, pension shall be paid to his widow as follows :—

- (a) during her own life, one-half of the pension payable to her husband at the time of his death, or pension at the rate of Twenty-six Pounds per annum, whichever is the greater :
Provided that if she remarries, her pension under this paragraph shall thereupon cease and determine ; and
- (b) in respect of each of her or the pensioner's children (except children of her remarriage) who are under the age of sixteen years, a pension at the rate of Thirteen Pounds per annum until the age of sixteen years has been attained :

Provided that where a pensioner marries after his retirement from the Service, pension shall not, upon the death of the pensioner, be payable to the widow or in respect of the children of that marriage :
Provided also that if the widow is not the first wife of the contributor the pension payable to such widow shall be reduced by one and a quarter per centum for each year, or part of a year, in excess of five years by which her age was exceeded by the age of her husband.

44. On

DIVISION II.

44. On the death of a male contributor or of a male pensioner, whose wife is dead or divorced, and who leaves children of himself or of his wife who are under the age of sixteen years and who were dependent upon him at the time of his death, there shall be paid to the guardian of the children, to be used for their support and education, a pension at the rate of Twenty-six Pounds per annum in respect of each child until the child attains the age of sixteen years.

Pension to orphans on death of contributor or pensioner.

45. On the death before retirement of a female contributor or of a male contributor who had never married, or of a male contributor whose wife is dead or divorced, and who does not leave any child of himself or his wife who is under the age of sixteen years and who was dependent upon him at the time of his death, there shall be paid to his personal representatives, or, failing them, to such persons as the Board determines, a sum equal to the actual amount of the contributions paid by him to the Fund less the actual amount of any pension received by such contributor under section 40 or 47 of this Act.

Refund of contributions on death before retirement.

46. (1) Any employee who—

- (a) has at the date of his retirement been in the Service for at least ten years; and
- (b) has attained the age of retirement at any time before the appointed day,

Pensions for officers attaining sixty-five before contributions due and retiring after commencement of this Act.

shall, on retirement at any time after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, be entitled to a pension of four units, without paying any contribution to the Fund.

(2) A pension under this section shall be payable from the date of retirement of the employee, and shall carry widow's and children's benefits in accordance with this Act.

(3) Until the establishment of the Fund under this Act, pension shall be paid from the General Revenue of the State, and upon the establishment of the Fund the pension shall be paid from the Fund, and the payments from the Fund shall be repaid from the said General Revenue.

(4) This section shall come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

47. (1) An employee who has been in the Service for at least seven years and who, after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent and before the appointed day, is retired or is permitted to retire on the ground of invalidity or physical or mental incapacity to perform his duties shall be entitled to a pension of four units without paying any contribution to the Fund.

Pensions for employees retiring through breakdown after commencement of Act and before contributions due.

(2) A pension under this section shall be payable from the retirement of the employee, and shall carry widow's and children's benefits in accordance with this Act.

(3) Until

(3) Until the establishment of the Fund under this Act the pension shall be paid from the General Revenue of the State, and, upon the establishment of the Fund, the pension shall be paid from the Fund, and the payments from the Fund shall be repaid from the said General Revenue.

(4) This section shall come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

Pensions to widow and children where officer of ten years' service dies after passing of this Act and before time for making elections under section 24.

48. (1) Where any employee who has been in the Service for at least ten years dies after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent and before the expiration of the time fixed by section 24 for making elections and without having made such an election, a pension shall be paid to his widow as follows :—

(a) during her own life a pension of two units : Provided that if she remarries, her pension under this paragraph shall thereupon cease and determine ; and

(b) in respect of each of her or the employee's children (except children of her remarriage) who are under the age of sixteen years, a pension at the rate of Thirteen Pounds per annum until the age of sixteen years has been attained.

(2) Pensions under this section shall be payable from the death of the employee.

(3) Until the establishment of the Fund under this Act, the pension shall be paid from the General Revenue of the State, and, upon the establishment of the Fund, the pension shall be paid from the Fund, and the payments from the Fund shall be repaid from the said General Revenue.

(4) This section shall come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

Increased pension to orphans upon death of widow of contributor or pensioner.

49. Where the widow of a deceased male contributor or pensioner dies leaving children of her own (not being children of her remarriage after entering upon pension) or of her husband's who are under the age of sixteen years, the pension payable in respect of those children after the death of the widow shall be at the rate of Twenty-six Pounds per annum in respect of each child until the child attains the age of sixteen years.

Retrenchment of contributor, choice of benefits.

50. (1) In the event of the retrenchment of a contributor, he shall be entitled to receive the contributions paid by him and the actuarial equivalent of the contributions which would have been made by the Government, if the Government had, during the period throughout which the contributor had been contributing to the Fund, been making such periodical contributions to the Fund as are necessary to provide for the share of pension payable by the Government. In computing the amount, however, which a contributor is entitled to receive under this subsection there shall be deducted the actual amount amount of any pension received by such contributor under section 40 or 47 of this Act. In this subsection "periodical contributions" means contributions made from time to time on each occasion when a contribution is deducted from the salary of the contributor or made by the contributor in any other way.

(2) Within one month after his retrenchment the contributor may choose to receive payment in the form of a lump sum or as a pension.

(3) In default of such choice the Board shall determine in which form payment shall be made.

(4) Where an employee who has been retrenched and is in receipt of a pension re-enters the Service, the following provisions shall apply :—

(a) the pension shall continue to be payable ; and

(b) he shall contribute as provided in Part IV. of this Act, but shall not be entitled to claim any further benefit in respect of his previous service.

(5) Where an employee who has been retrenched and has received payment in the form of a lump sum under this section re-enters the Service, he shall contribute as provided in Part IV. of this Act, but shall not be entitled to claim any further benefit in respect of his previous service.

51. (1) Where a contributor resigns or is dismissed or discharged from the Service there shall be paid to him the amount of the actual contributions paid by him under this Act, less the actual amount of any pension received by such contributor under section 40 or 47 of this Act, irrespective of the cause of his resignation, dismissal, or discharge.

Resignation, dismissal, or discharge of contributor—refund of
contributions.

(2) Where any employee, who has resigned or been dismissed or discharged and has received a refund of the amount of his contributions, re-enters the Service, he shall contribute as provided in Part IV. of this Act, but shall not be entitled to claim any further benefit in respect of his previous service.

52. (1) Where a male pensioner deserts his wife, the wife may from time to time, apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction, and, on proof of such desertion, the Court may order the payment, during such period as it thinks desirable, of pension, in accordance with the provisions contained in section 43 of this Act, as if the pensioner were dead. The Board shall comply with any such order, and shall discontinue payment of pension to the pensioner during the period mentioned in the order.

Desertion by male pensioner of wife or child.

(2) Where a pensioner, whose wife is dead or divorced, deserts any of his children who are dependent on him, the guardian of the children, or the Board, may apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction, and, on proof of the desertion, the Court may order the payment, during such period as it thinks desirable, of pension in accordance accordance with the provisions contained in section 44 of this Act, as if the pensioner were dead. The Board shall comply with any such order, and shall discontinue payment of pension to the pensioner during the period mentioned in the order.

Imprisonment of male pensioner.

53. Where a male pensioner is sentenced to imprisonment for any period exceeding one month, payment of his pension under this Act shall be discontinued during the period of his imprisonment; and—

- (a) if his wife is alive, she shall during that period, be entitled in accordance with the provisions contained in section 43 of this Act as if the pensioner were dead, to pension for herself and for children who were dependent upon the pensioner, unless the Board is satisfied, after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, that payment to the wife is undesirable; or
- (b) if his wife is dead or divorced, pensions for children dependent upon the pensioner shall, during that period, be payable in accordance with the provisions contained in section 44 of this Act as if the pensioner were dead.

Insanity of male pensioner.

54. Where a male pensioner is detained as a patient in a hospital for the insane, the Board may cause his pension or any part thereof to be paid, during the period of detention, to his wife, if alive, or if his wife is dead or divorced, to some person for the use of such of the children of himself or of his late wife as are under the age of sixteen years, in such proportion as the Board thinks fit.

Imprisonment of female pensioner.

55. Where a female pensioner is sentenced to imprisonment for any period exceeding one month, payment of her pension under this Act shall be discontinued during the period of her imprisonment: Provided that any pension payable to her in respect of children shall be payable under section 44 of this Act.

Payments to children.

56. (1) Where pensions in respect of children are payable under this Act to a widow, the pension shall, if the widow dies, be payable to the guardians of the children.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any money payable out of the Fund in respect of a child under the age of sixteen years may, at the discretion of the Board, be paid to the guardian of the child or expended by the Board for the benefit of the child.

Pensions payable for life except in case of children.

57. (1) Except where otherwise provided in this Act, a pension shall be payable during the life of the person entitled thereto.

(2) Pensions in respect of children shall be payable until they attain the age of sixteen years or die before attaining that age.

Pensions payable at prescribed intervals.

58. Pensions shall be payable by equal monthly instalments in such manner as is prescribed.

59. Except

*Superannuation Act.—1926.*PART V.
DIVISION II.

59. Except where otherwise provided in this Act, in any case where in this Act provision is made for the pension of a person to be actuarially determined, any pension under this Act to his widow in respect of her own life shall be one-half of the amount so actuarially determined, but not less than one unit.

Value of widow's pension.

DIVISION III.—BREAKDOWN PENSIONS.

DIVISION III.

60. (1) Any pensioner who is in receipt of a pension under section 40 or 47 of this Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be on leave of absence without pay, and shall not be required to contribute in respect of the period of that leave. Notwithstanding the fact that he is deemed to be on leave of absence, his office or position may be held to be vacant, and may be filled by the appointment thereto of some other person.

Breakdown pensioner to be deemed to be on leave.

(2) In the event of the re-employment in the service of a person who has retired on a pension under section 40 or 47 of this Act, the period during which he was retired shall not, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a break in the continuity of his service.

(3) Any such pensioner shall submit himself for medical examination as and when required by the Board, and if he makes default in complying with such requirement, the pension shall cease to be payable to him so long as he continues in default.

61. (1) If, in the opinion of the Board, the health of any pensioner to whom a pension under section 40 or 47 of this Act is being paid, has become so restored as to enable him to perform his duties, the Board shall so inform the Minister, with a view to suitable employment in the Service being found for the pensioner.

Employee restored to health may be recalled to service.

(2) If suitable employment is offered to him, at a salary not less than two-thirds of his salary at the time of his retirement the Board may cancel the pension, and thereupon it shall cease to be payable.

(3) In the event of the recurrence of his infirmity, any contributor who has been re-employed in the Service shall be entitled to a pension at a rate not less than the amount of the pension on which he was first retired.

DIVISION IV.—EXISTING SUPERANNUATION FUNDS.

DIVISION IV.

62. In this Division—

Interpretation.

“Existing funds” means the Public School Teachers’ Superannuation Fund and the Public Service Superannuation Fund :

“Board” means the Board of Management of the Public School Teachers’ Superannuation Fund or (as the case may be) the Public Service Superannuation Fund Board.

63. Notwithstanding

PART V.
DIVISION IV.Superannuation Act.—1926.

Abolition of duty to subscribe to existing funds.

63. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, after the commencement of this Act it shall not be compulsory for any person to become or continue to be a subscriber to either of the existing funds.

Abolition of obligation to contribute to existing funds.

64. (1) Within three months from the commencement of this Act a subscriber to either of the existing funds may, with respect to any policy contract entered into by him with the Board, by notice in writing given to the Board of such fund, elect to—

(a) continue such contract ; or

(b) determine such contract on either of the following conditions at his option, namely—

(i.) that he receive back from such Board in cash the whole of his contributions to the said fund ; or

(ii.) that in lieu of such contract he accept from the Board a fully paid up annuity contract providing for such benefits and containing such terms as the Actuary to the said fund may think fit.

(2) Any subscriber to an existing fund who does not give notice as mentioned in subsection (1) shall be deemed to have elected to determine his contract on condition that he receive back from such Board in cash the whole of his contributions to such fund.

Payment of moneys to retiring subscribers, and mode of raising such money.

65. (1) Within six months of the commencement of this Act, the Board of each of the existing funds shall pay to every subscriber who determines his contract with such Board on the condition set out in subparagraph (i.) of subsection (1) of the last preceding section the sum to which he is entitled under that subparagraph.

(2) In order that the Board of each of the existing funds shall be provided with money to meet the cash payments required to be made under this section, the Board appointed under this Act shall purchase from the Board of each of the existing funds such amount as is necessary for the purpose aforesaid of the Municipal, Government, mortgage, or other securities current and held by such last-mentioned Board.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the Board appointed under this Act is authorised to borrow from the Treasurer an amount not exceeding four-fifths of the capital value of the securities so purchased, and the Treasurer is hereby authorised to lend such amount. Any such advance made by the Treasurer shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and shall be a first charge on and repayable as early as practicable from the contributions received from subscribers under this Act.

Actuarial valuation and disposal of surplus of existing funds.

66. As soon as possible after the expiry of the period of six months referred to in subsection (1) of the past preceding section, the Actuary to each of the existing funds shall make an actuarial valuation of the fund. If any surplus is disclosed in either of the existing existing funds as a result of such valuation, such surplus shall be distributed upon such terms as the Actuary to such fund may recommend, among the persons who were, at the time of the commencement of this Act, subscribers to or annuitants of such fund.

*Superannuation Act.—1926.*PART V.
DIVISION IV.

DIVISION V.—COMPULSORY INSURANCE POLICIES.

DIVISION V.

67. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act, regulation, or by-law, it shall not be necessary for any contributor under this Act to insure his life, or to continue in force any policy of insurance on his life already taken out at the commencement of this Act, and any policy taken out by an employee pursuant to any such Act, regulation, or by-law, and held by the Government of the State, or any department thereof, shall be placed at the disposal of the employee.

Insurance policies may be continued or discontinued at option of contributor.

68. Where any employee has before the commencement of this Act taken out a policy of insurance on his life, which policy is in force at the commencement of this Act, such employee may surrender his policy of insurance, and may pay the surrender value to the Board under the provisions of Part VI. of this Act relating to voluntary saving, or he may, with the consent of the Board, transfer such policy (if unencumbered) to the Board, and request the Board to continue the payment of the premiums under the said policy. The Board shall thereupon cause such premiums to be duly paid, and, on the maturity of the policy, shall hand over to the employee or to his personal representatives to be administered as part of his estate any sums received on the policy, less the amount of the premiums, with compound interest thereon at the rate of Four Pounds per centum per annum from the respective dates of payment.

Surrender of policies.

PART VI.

PART VI.

VOLUNTARY SAVINGS.

69. Subject to such conditions as are prescribed, any employee may—

Additional payment to Fund by deduction from salary or by direct payment.

(a) authorise the Treasurer to deduct from his salary and pay to the Fund any sum in excess of the compulsory contributions elsewhere in this Act provided, and may at any time cancel such authorisation ; or

(b) pay directly to the Fund any sum of money.

70. Any moneys paid to the Fund by, or by authorisation of any employee under this Part shall form part of the Fund.

Moneys part of Fund.

71. Such moneys shall be credited to such employee, and shall accumulate at interest at a rate per centum per annum compounded annually, which rate shall be fixed by the Board from year to year.

Rate of interest allowed.

72. Any

PART VI.

Superannuation Act.—1926.

Withdrawal of
voluntary savings.

72. Any employee may, at any time after the expiration of three months' notice, withdraw from the Fund the whole amount lying at his credit therein under this Part (both principal and interest) or any portion thereof.

Purchase of additional pensions or of annuities.

73. Any employee may at any time apply any moneys lying to his credit under this Part in purchasing from the Board an annuity on his life, or on the life of his wife, son, or daughter.

Scale of payments for annuities.

74. Any annuity sold by the Board under this Part shall be in accordance with the table of contributions for annuities prescribed by the Governor from time to time, on the recommendation of the Board.

Retired employee may continue in
Fund.

75. Any employee who has lodged moneys in the Fund under this Part may, on his retirement, allow such moneys to remain in the Fund and may add thereto as though he had not retired; or may exercise the rights conferred by the three next preceding sections.

PART VII.

PART VII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Determination of questions as to invalidity, &c.

76. Whenever any question arises under this Act as to whether a contributor is an invalid, or is physically or mentally incapable of performing his duties, and whether the invalidity or incapacity is due to his fault, the question shall be determined by the Board (whether before or after the retirement of the contributor) upon a report from a medical officer appointed for the purposes of this Act: Provided that, before determining any such question adversely to the contributor, the Board shall consider any medical report or other evidence or information submitted to it by the contributor.

Settlement of disputes.

77. (1) Any dispute under this Act shall be determined in the first place by the Board: Provided that any person aggrieved by a decision of the Board not being a decision which is by this Act declared to be final may appeal to the Supreme Court constituted by a single Judge of that Court.

(2) The decision of the Court shall be final and conclusive and without appeal.

Barring of claims for compensation.
Cf. Q., No. 28,
1912, s. 27.

78. No person shall be deemed to be entitled to any compensation by reason of any alteration in any prescribed amount of pension or other benefit or of any contribution under this Act, which may be made by any Act amending this Act, or by any regulation, or by the Governor or the Board in consequence of any actuarial investigation or otherwise under this Act.

79. After

Superannuation Act.—1926.

PART VII.

79. After the commencement of this Act, the accounts of every Department of the Government of the State shall be prepared in every year in such a way as to show what proportion of the cost to the Government of the pensions and benefits payable under this Act during that year, is payable in respect of employees who were immediately prior to their retirement on pension employed in such Department, and that proportion of the cost shall be deemed to be included in the working expenses of that Department.

Inclusion of cost of fund in departmental accounts.

80. (1) The Board may at any time require the Government to furnish such returns with respect to its employees as the Board decides, and may at any time require any employee to furnish such information as the Board deems necessary for the purpose of any investigation in connection with the Fund.

Returns.

(2) Any employee who, without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie upon him), fails to furnish the information required of him under this Act shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty—Ten Pounds.

(3) Any offence under this section may be dealt with summarily.

81. Pensions and other benefits under this Act shall not be in any way assigned or charged or passed by operation of law to any person other than the pensioner or beneficiary and any moneys payable out of the Fund on the death of an employee or beneficiary shall not be assets for the payment of his debts or liabilities: Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the making of an order in the nature of a garnishee order against any instalment of a pension payable to a person who has been an employee.

Assignment of pensions.

82. The Board may recover contributions under this Act in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Power to recover.

83. The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Board, make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matter required or permitted to be prescribed, or necessary or convenient to be prescribed, for carrying out or giving effect to this Act, and in particular—

Regulations.

(a) for prescribing in respect of contributors suffering from invalidity or physical or mental incapacity to perform their duties, all or any of the following matters:—

- I. conditions of retirement;
- II. pensions or other benefits;
- III. provisions for cancellation of pensions or other benefits; and
- IV. conditions of compulsory re-employment;

(b) for

PART VII.

Superannuation Act.—1926.

- (b) for prescribing the data in respect of mortality, conjugal condition, dependent children, invalidity, and for prescribing the incidence on the several benefits of the commutations involved in determining actuarial equivalents for the purpose of this Act;
- (c) where under this Act an employee may make any election or choice, and the time within which it may be made is not stated in the Act, for prescribing the time within which it must be made and the conditions upon which it may be made;
- (d) for prescribing conditions relative to voluntary savings under Part VI. of this Act; and
- (e) for prescribing penalties not exceeding Fifty Pounds for an offence against the regulations.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

TOM BRIDGES, Governor.
