

ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO

GEORGI V REGIS.

A.D. 1935.

No. 2228.

An Act to consolidate certain Acts relating to the University of Adelaide.

[Assented to, 5th December, 1935.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the "University of Adelaide Act, 1935". Short title.

2. (1) This Act is a consolidation of the Acts mentioned in the first schedule, and the said Acts are hereby repealed. Acts consolidated and repealed.

(2) The repeal of the said Acts shall not affect any statutes or regulations made and in force under the said Acts, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, but they shall, to that extent, have the same effect as if this Act had been in force when they were made and conferred power to make them, and they had been made hereunder.

3. In this Act, unless some other meaning is clearly intended— Interpretation.

"council" means the council of the University of Adelaide :

"senate" means the senate of the University of Adelaide :

"university" means the University of Adelaide.

University of Adelaide Act.—1935.

Incorporation and continuance of university.
20, 1874, s. 1.

4. (1) The university established at Adelaide pursuant to The Adelaide University Act is hereby continued.

(2) The university shall consist of a council and a senate.

(3) The university shall be a body politic and corporate by the name of "The University of Adelaide" and by that name—

(a) shall have perpetual succession :

(b) shall adopt and have a common seal :

(c) shall sue and be sued in all courts in South Australia :

(d) shall be capable in law to take, purchase, and hold all personal property whatsoever :

(e) shall be capable in law to receive, take, purchase, and hold for ever not only such lands, buildings, hereditaments and possessions as may from time to time be exclusively used or occupied for the immediate requirements of the university, but also any other lands, buildings, hereditaments, and possessions whatsoever, situated in South Australia or elsewhere :

(f) shall, subject to subsection (4), be capable in law to grant, demise, alien, or otherwise dispose of, all or any of the real or personal property belonging to the university :

(g) shall be capable in law to do all other matters and things incidental or appertaining to a body politic and corporate.

(4) The university shall not alien, mortgage, charge, or demise any lands, tenements, or hereditaments of the university unless with the approval of the Governor except by way of lease for any term not exceeding twenty-one years from the time when the lease is made in and by which there is reserved during the whole of the term, the highest rent that can be reasonably obtained for the same, without fine.

The council.
20, 1874, ss. 2
(part) and 3
(part).
1058, 1911, s. 3.

5. (1) Subject to section 12, the council shall consist of twenty-five members.

(2) Twenty of the members of the council shall be elected by the senate in manner provided by section 6.

(3) Five of the members of the council shall be elected by the Parliament of South Australia in the manner provided by sections 7, 8, 9, and 10.

(4) Not more than four ministers of religion shall be members of the council at the same time.

University of Adelaide Act.—1935.

6. The members of the council elected by the senate shall be elected in accordance with the following rules:—

Election of members of council by senate.

20, 1874, s. 3 (part).

I. At the expiration of every year the five members of the council who have been longest in office shall retire, but shall be eligible for re-election, and if more members shall have been in office for the same period the order of their retirement shall be decided by ballot:

II. All vacancies which shall occur in the council by retirement, death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled as they may occur, by the election of such persons as the senate shall elect at meetings duly convened for the purpose:

III. If the senate fails to elect a person to fill a vacancy in the council within six months of the occurrence of the vacancy, the Governor may nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

7. (1) Of the five members of the council appointed by Parliament two shall be appointed by the Legislative Council, and three by the House of Assembly.

Election of members of council by Parliament.

1058, 1911, s. 4.

(2) The said members shall be appointed by ballot.

(3) No person shall be eligible for appointment under this section unless he is a member of the House of Parliament by which he is appointed.

8. (1) At the beginning of every Parliament five members of the council shall be appointed in manner provided in section 7.

Time of appointment and tenure of office.

1058, 1911, s. 5.

(2) Upon the notification, in manner mentioned in section 11, of the appointment by either House of Parliament of members as mentioned in subsection (1), the members of the council appointed by that House and then in office shall retire: Provided that any member so appointed shall be eligible for reappointment from time to time.

9. In case any member of the council appointed by either House of Parliament ceases to be a member of the House of Parliament which appointed him, otherwise than by the expiration or dissolution of Parliament, he shall thereupon cease to be a member of the council.

Effect of councillor ceasing to be member of Parliament.

1058, 1911, s. 6.

10. When a vacancy in the office of a member of the council appointed by either House of Parliament occurs through death, resignation, or otherwise, a member to fill the vacancy shall be appointed by the House of Parliament which appointed the member whose office has become vacant. The member so appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.

Filling of vacancies.

1058, 1911, s. 7.

University of Adelaide Act.—1935.

Speaker's notice of appointment to be conclusive evidence.
1058, 1911, s. 8.

11. A notice in writing addressed to the Chancellor, and signed by the President or Deputy President of the Legislative Council or by the Speaker or Deputy Speaker of the House of Assembly, as the case may be, certifying that the person or persons therein named has or have been appointed by Parliament a member or members of the council, shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated and of the validity of the appointment.

Election of Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor
20, 1874, s. 2
(part).

12. (1) The council shall elect a Chancellor whenever a vacancy occurs in that office by death, resignation, expiration of tenure, or otherwise, and shall elect a Vice-Chancellor whenever a vacancy occurs in that office by death, resignation, expiration of tenure, or otherwise.

(2) Every Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor shall hold his office for five years, or for such other term as shall be fixed by the statutes and regulations of the university made previously to his election.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall, in all cases, be elected by the council out of their own body.

(4) If the Chancellor is not a member of the council at the time of his election he shall, from and after his election, become a member of the council during the term of his office, and in any such case, and for the said period, the council shall consist of twenty-six members.
