4—Directions

- (1) Subject to this clause, a person is prohibited from entering, or remaining on, the premises of a residential aged care facility in the State of South Australia unless—
- (a) the person is a resident of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (b) the person is an employee or contractor of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (c) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of providing goods or services that are necessary for the effective operation of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (d) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of providing health, medical or pharmaceutical services to a resident of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (e) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of a care and support visit to a resident of the residential aged care facility on a particular day, and is the only care and support visit made to the resident on that day; or
  - (f) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of end of life support for a resident of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (g) the person's presence at the premises is required for the purposes of emergency management or law enforcement; or
  - (h) the person's presence at the premises is required for the purposes of regulatory functions or duties, including inspections; or
  - (i) the person is a legal practitioner and their presence at the premises is for the purposes of the provision of legal advice or services.

Example—

A legal practitioner entering the premises of a residential aged care facility to take instructions from a client who is a resident of the facility or for the purposes of the execution of a will or other testamentary instrument by a client who is a resident of the facility.

- (2) Despite subclause (1), a person referred to in subclause (1)(b) to (i) must not enter or remain on the premises of a residential aged care facility in the State of South Australia if—
- (a) during the 14 days immediately preceding the entry, the person arrived in South Australia from a place outside South Australia; or
  - (b) during the 14 days immediately preceding the entry, the person had known contact with a person who has a confirmed case of COVID-19, or the person has a temperature higher than 38 degrees celsius or symptoms of acute respiratory infection; or
  - (c) from 1 May 2020—the person has not been vaccinated against 2020 seasonal influenza; or
  - (d) the person is aged under 16 years, other than in circumstances where the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of end of life support for a resident of the residential aged care facility.

- (3) Subclause (2)(c) does not apply—
- (a) to a person who has a medical contraindication to the influenza vaccine (such as a person who has a history of anaphylaxis, or has had Guillain-Barré Syndrome, following vaccination, or who is taking checkpoint inhibitor medication for cancer treatment); or
  - (b) to an employee or contractor of a residential aged care facility that is not able to access an adequate supply of the influenza vaccine by 1 May 2020, provided that the operator of the residential aged care facility—
    - (i) notifies the Department for Health and Wellbeing, within 2 business days of 1 May 2020, of the fact that the residential aged care facility is not able to access an adequate supply of the influenza vaccine; and
    - (ii) takes all reasonable steps to access an adequate supply as soon as is reasonably practicable after 1 May 2020.
- (4) The operator of a residential aged care facility in the State of South Australia must take all reasonable steps to ensure that a person does not enter or remain on the premises of the residential aged care facility if the person is prohibited from doing so under subclause (1) or (2).
- (5) Subject to subclause (6), a resident of a residential aged care facility who leaves the premises of the residential aged care facility after this direction commences operation is prohibited from re-entering those premises.
- (6) Subclause (5) does not apply to—
- (a) a resident who leaves the premises of a residential aged care facility—
    - (i) for medical or dental treatment of the resident; or
    - (ii) to attend the funeral of a member of the resident's immediate family; or
  - (b) a resident who—
    - (i) has dementia or another cognitive impairment (such that the resident does not understand this direction or the consequences of leaving); and
    - (ii) inadvertently leaves the premises of a residential aged care facility; or
  - (c) a resident who has no safe alternative accommodation.
- (7) Nothing in this direction is to be taken to prevent a residential aged care facility from accommodating new residents (whether on a permanent basis or for respite care).
