

REDUNDANT OFFICERS FUND ACT, 1936

being

Redundant Officers Fund Act, 1936, No. 2271 of 1936 [Assented to 13th August, 1936].

An Act to authorize the Treasurer to pay to the Public Service Association of South Australia certain money held by him and commonly known as the Redundant Officers Fund, and to declare the purpose for which that money shall be used by that Association.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Redundant Officers Fund Act, 1936". Short title.

2. The Treasurer may without any warrant other than this Act pay to the Public Service Association of South Australia (in this Act called "the Association") the sum of two thousand one hundred and eight pounds seventeen shillings and threepence standing in his books to the credit of the account known as the "Personal Account Deposits Employment of Redundant Officers". Payment of fund to Public Service Association.

3. The Association shall use the sum so paid to it and all moneys repaid in respect of loans made from that sum and all interest received in respect of any such loan— Use of money by Association.

- (a) for the purpose of making loans or gifts to members of the Public Service of the State who are in financial difficulties; and
  - (b) for any other purpose (either in addition to or in substitution for that mentioned in paragraph (a)) approved by the Treasurer and by a majority of the members of the Association voting at a ballot duly conducted in the manner prescribed by the rules of the Association: Provided that if that other purpose is a charitable purpose the approval of the Treasurer shall not be required.
-